THE CABARET

By Paul Terry & Frank Moser

Everything keeps time in the big city. When Waffles the cat takes his sweetie to the Cabaret, the waiters dance and the performers keep step.

Cats play pianos, monkeys play xylophones and a hippo and a cow dance a fancy fox-trot.

The cops noticing the wild life of the Cabaret's patrons, raid the place and carry them off to the town lock-up.

In jail the gang breaks out in song, singing, "Hail, Hail the Gang's All Here!"

AESOP SAYS: " IT DOESN'T PAY TO BE CROOKED. LOOK AT WHAT HAPPENED TO HAIRPINS AND CORKSCREWS".
